Real Money, Real Power?
The Challenges with Participatory Budgeting in New York City

Join Baruch’s Center for Nonprofit Strategy and Management for a discussion on Participatory Budgeting in NYC, featuring findings from the book “Real Money, Real Power? Participatory Budgeting in New York City”. Topics to be discussed include:

- What is participatory budgeting like for a member of the community not closely associated with a council member’s office?
- Do city agencies cooperate with participatory budgeting?
- Who is most likely to see their proposal get through the review process and get on the participatory budgeting ballot?
