

EXECUTIVE MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION (EMPA)

The Executive MPA program is for experienced professionals who want to gain administrative leadership skills through a convenient course schedule and accelerated program of study. Executive MPA classes are taught for a full day on Saturdays from September to June. Students complete the 42-credit curriculum in two years as a cohort.

YEAR ONE

FALL

(September-January)

PAF 9100 Introduction to Public Affairs

PAF 9103 Communication in Public Settings

PAF 9170 Research and Analysis I

PAF 9172 Research and Analysis II

SPRING

(February-June)

PAF 9120 Public and Nonprofit Management I

PAF 9139 Communication Strategy

PAF 9140 Budgeting, Accounting and Financial Analysis I

YEAR TWO

FALL

(September-January)

PAF 9110 Ethics and Public Decision Making

PAF 9117 Public Personnel and HR Management

PAF 9130 Economic Analysis and Public Policy

PAF 9132 Governing New York City

SPRING

(February-June)

PAF 9163 Leadership and Strategy in Public Affairs

PAF 9174 Program Evaluation

PAF 9190 Capstone Seminar