About the Marxe School of Public and International Affairs

The Austin W. Marxe School of Public and International Affairs is New York City’s only public graduate school dedicated to public affairs. Since 1994, we have offered an undergraduate degree, a graduate-level MPA degree in public policy and administration, and a Master of Science in Education (MSEd) program in Higher Education Administration (MSEd-HEA). In the Fall of 2017 we launched a Master of International Affairs (MIA) degree program. We will launch an Online Master of Public Administration (OMPA) in the Fall of 2024. We also have two certificate programs: the Certificate in Public Communication, and the Certificate in Quantitative Methods for Policy and Equity Analysis. We draw upon one of the largest public affairs faculty in the nation, and we apply an interdisciplinary approach to teaching, research, and professional development.
